Information You have to provide to Us

In deciding to accept this Policy and in setting the terms and premium, We have relied on the information You have given Us. You must take care when answering any questions asked by Us ensuring that all information provided is accurate and complete.

If We establish that You deliberately or recklessly provided Us with false or misleading information We will treat Your Policy as if it never existed and decline all claims. We may not return premium already paid by You in this situation.

If We establish that You provided Us with false, incomplete or misleading information, it can adversely affect Your Policy and any claim.

Where We could have accepted the risk and offered You a Policy but We would have charged a higher premium, We may only pay a percentage of any claim that You make under the Policy. We would do this by considering the premium We actually charged as a percentage of the higher premium We would have charged and then paying You the same percentage of any claim

We may treat your Policy as if it had never existed and refuse to pay all claims and return the premium, subject to a deduction for any commission paid to Your Broker. We will only do this if the false, incomplete or misleading information means that We provided You with insurance cover when We would not otherwise have offered it at all had the risk been fairly presented

If We would have written the risk on different terms had it been fairly presented, We may amend the Policy to include these terms. We may apply these amended terms as if they were already in place before a claim is made

We may cancel Your Policy in accordance with its cancellation provisions

We will write to You if We:

1. intend to treat Your Policy as if it never existed; or
2. amend the terms of Your Policy; or
3. reduce Your claim in accordance with the above

If You become aware that information You have given Us is inaccurate or incomplete, You must inform Us as soon as practicable.

Financial Services Compensation Scheme

The Underwriters are members of the Financial Services Compensation Scheme (FSCS). You may be entitled to compensation from the scheme if we are unable to meet our liabilities under this insurance. This depends on the type of business and the circumstances of the claim. Such claims are protected for 90% without any upper limit. For compulsory classes of insurance the claim will be met in full. Further information about the compensation scheme arrangements is available from FSCS. Information can be obtained on request, or by visiting the FSCS website at www.fscs.org.uk

Important Information

The Employers Liability (Compulsory Insurance) Regulations 1998 lay down certain obligations for employers and in particular You should be aware of the following

Display of Certificates

We will provide You with a Certificate of Employers Liability Insurance and this will state clearly the companies covered by it. You must display either an original copy or make available a copy of the Certificate of Employers Liability Insurance in an electronic format at each Business Premises where Your Employees can see it easily

Retention of Certificates

The Employers' Liability (Compulsory Insurance Amendment) Regulations 2008 remove the requirement for You to retain copies of Certificates of Employers Liability Insurance that have expired for at least 40 years. However it is still good business practice to retain the certificates because certain claims eg disease could be made many years after the disease is caused and if Your insurer can not be identified You could be liable for any payments

Several Liability Clause

The liability of an insurer under this contract is several and not joint with other insurers party to this contract. An insurer is liable only for the proportion of liability it has underwritten. An insurer is not jointly liable for the proportion of liability underwritten by any other insurer. Nor is an insurer otherwise responsible for any liability of any other insurer that may underwrite this contract.

The proportion of liability under this contract underwritten by an insurer (or, in the case of a Lloyd's syndicate, the total of the proportions underwritten by all the members of the syndicate taken together) is shown in this contract.

In the case of a Lloyd's syndicate, each member of the syndicate (rather than the syndicate itself) is an insurer. Each member has underwritten a proportion of the total shown for the syndicate (that total itself being the total of the proportions underwritten by all the members of the syndicate taken together). The liability of each member of the syndicate is several and not joint with other members. A member is liable only for that member's proportion. A member is not jointly liable for any other member's proportion. Nor is any member otherwise responsible for any liability of any other insurer that may underwrite this contract. The business address of each member is Lloyd's, One Lime Street, London EC3M 7HA. The identity of each member of a Lloyd's syndicate and their respective proportion may be obtained by writing to Market Services, Lloyd's, at the above address.
